Definition of Certificate Types

Birth Certificate (Short Form): Standard Birth Certificate needed in a vast majority of situations. An abstract of the Certificate of Live Birth. Accepted by all local, state and federal agencies including passport and social security offices. Also accepted by schools, social and civic organizations.

Certificate of Foreign Birth: A birth certificate established for a child born in a foreign country and adopted by parents who were Virginia residents at the time of the adoption. Delayed Birth Registration Certificate: A birth certificate established for an individual who birth certificate was not recorded at the time of birth.

Special Use Birth Certificate (Long Form): Very limited necessity. This type of request will experience increased processing times. An image copy of the Certificate of Live Birth received from the hospital, birthing facilities or midwife. Commonly requested for Duel Citizenship applications and special genealogy needs.

Amendment Guidance

Most items (misspelling of the name of the registrant and/or parents, incorrect date and/or place of birth, incorrect ages of parents, incorrect sex of registrant, etc.) on a birth certificate can be corrected either administratively or judicially. There are several provisions outlined in the Code of Virginia and the Regulations Governing Vital Records detailing how a birth certificate can be amended. To properly advise, the Office of Vital Records must review the birth certificate and work cooperatively with the customer.

Amendment Type	Amendment Code	Comments	Who can initiate the change	ew the birth certificate and work cooperatively with the customer.  Needed Documents
Establishment of a post-adoption birth certificate	ADP	To establish a birth certificate for a Virginia born child that has been adopted.	Registrant (if legal age) Adoptive Parents Legal Representative	Final Order of Adoption and Report of Adoption form certified by the Court that finalized the adoption. Application and/or written request, $10 Administrative Fee, Certification Fee ($12 per copy) and Requester ID.
Establishment of Certificate of Foreign Birth	CFB	To establish a birth certificate for a child born in a foreign country and adopted by parents who were Virginia residents at the time of the adoption.	Registrant (if legal age) Adoptive Parents Legal Representative	If the child was re-adopted in Virginia, a certified copy of the Report of Adoption form is needed. If the child was not re-adopted in Virginia a certified copy of the Foreign Adoption Order, a certified copy of the translated Final Order of Adoption in English, Home Study report, copy of the adopted child's United States Passport that shows the Immigrant Visa, proof of Virginia residency for the adoptive parent(s) at the time of adoption. Application and/or written request, $10 Administrative Fee, Certification Fee ($12 per copy) and Requester's ID.
Amending inaccuracies on a birth certificate	AMD	There are several provisions outlined in the Code of Virginia and the Regulations Governing Vital Records detailing how a birth certificate can be amended. To properly advise, the Office of Vital Records must review the birth certificate.	Registrant (if legal age) Immediate Family Legal Representative	A written request detailing the item to be amended on the birth certificate, $12 fee and requester's ID. The written request should also include the name of the registrant and date and place of birth, parent name as it appears on the birth certificate.
