

Electronic Data Exchange With VIIS

Electronic data exchange is available for those organizations with electronic health records interested in sending data electronically from their system to VIIS and vice versa. This is one option for using the registry but it is not the only option.

Do you have electronic health/medical records? :

Are you interested in exchanging data electronically with VIIS? :