

GUIDELINES REGARDING VIATICAL INVESTMENTS

I. INTRODUCTION

The North American Securities Administrators Association, Inc. (“NASAA”) has determined that the following Guidelines Regarding VIATICAL INVESTMENTS (“Guidelines”) are consistent with public investor protection and are in the public interest. Nothing shall prevent the ADMINISTRATOR from applying different standards from those contained in these Guidelines.

There have been questions from investors and the industry regarding VIATICAL INVESTMENTS and their treatment under the Blue Sky Securities Acts. Typically, a VIATICAL INVESTMENT involves the purchase by a VIATICAL INVESTOR of an interest in an insurance policy covering the life of an individual. The purchase may be for a whole or fractional interest in the policy. Some interests may be in a pool of policies insuring the lives of several people. The INSURED receives an amount of money less than the expected death benefit of the policy, while the VIATICAL INVESTOR in turn receives the right to some portion of the face amount of the policy upon the death of the INSURED.

It is the position of NASAA that VIATICAL INVESTMENTS, commonly known as investments in viatical, senior, or life settlement contracts, are securities and must be registered with a state securities division as required by state law. Further, those persons and/or entities selling them must be registered as required by state law.

VIATICAL INVESTMENTS, in general, may not be suitable for many investors. There are risks associated with VIATICAL INVESTMENTS that individual investors may not recognize, and which unscrupulous promoters may misrepresent or fail to disclose. Funds invested in VIATICAL INVESTMENTS are not accessible on the demand of the investor. These factors and others render this type of investment unsuitable for the financial needs and interests of the average individual investor.

The question of whether VIATICAL INVESTMENTS are properly characterized as securities is answered by reference to long-standing principles governing the interpretation of state securities laws by both the state securities administrators and the courts. Conventional analysis as set forth in S.E.C. v. W.J. Howey Co., 328 U.S. 293, 301 (1946) and its progeny results in the conclusion that VIATICAL INVESTMENTS are securities.

NASAA is mindful of the decision of the D.C. Circuit in SEC v. Life Partners, Inc., 87 F.3d 536, 543 (D.C. Cir. 1996), pet. for reh. denied, 102 F.3d 587 (D.C. Cir. 1996). NASAA does not agree with either the rationale or the outcome of this case. State securities regulators are not bound by the interpretation of federal statutes by federal courts, particularly where the rationale does not serve the prophylactic and remedial purposes of the state securities laws. Life Partners disregards the premise underlying the Howey test—that is, that the statutory definition of “security” “embodies a flexible rather than a static principle, one that is capable of adaptation to meet the countless and variable schemes devised by those who seek the use of the money of others on the promise of profits.” Howey, 328 U.S. at 299.

NASAA concludes that VIATICAL INVESTMENTS, regardless of the health status or age of the insured, are securities. All persons involved in the offer and/or sale of VIATICAL INVESTMENTS should be aware of the nature and extent of the registration and antifraud provisions of state securities laws, as well as the applicability of these provisions to every offer and/or sale of a security.

A. Application

The standards contained in these Guidelines apply to the offer and sale of VIATICAL INVESTMENTS. These Guidelines do not apply to investments in a pool of life insurance policies, as those offerings are covered by existing registration guidelines. Applications not conforming to the standards contained herein shall be looked upon with disfavor. However, the ADMINISTRATOR may allow waivers or exceptions from certain standards under these Guidelines, if good cause is shown, or may require different standards based on provisions of statutes or regulations of a state.

B. Definitions

1. ADMINISTRATOR means the official or agency responsible for administering and enforcing the securities laws and regulations of a state.
2. AFFILIATE means a PERSON who, directly or indirectly, CONTROLS, is CONTROLLED by, or is under common CONTROL with the PERSON specified herein.

include those set forth in IV. A. 1. of these Guidelines. It may not be affiliated with the VIATICAL ISSUER, its PROMOTERS, or AFFILIATES. A financial institution may not be disallowed to act as an ESCROW AGENT merely because the VIATICAL ISSUER, its PROMOTERS, or AFFILIATES are customers thereof. An ESCROW AGENT may also include an attorney or certified public accountant who: (1) is not affiliated with the VIATICAL ISSUER, its PROMOTERS, or AFFILIATES; (2) is licensed to do business in the state in which s/he practices; and (3) can demonstrate that s/he is adequately insured or can provide a fidelity bond.

 - (ii) An unaffiliated institutional investor, who purchased the VIATICAL ISSUER's equity securities more than one year prior to the filing date of the VIATICAL ISSUER's registration statement. An unaffiliated institutional investor who purchased the VIATICAL ISSUER's equity securities on an arm's-length basis within one year prior to the filing date of the VIATICAL ISSUER's registration statement may, at the ADMINISTRATOR's discretion, be excluded from the definition of PROMOTER.
- 13. UNDERWRITER – Any PERSON that enters into a contractual agreement with the VIATICAL ISSUER to offer and sell VIATICAL INVESTMENTS on behalf of the VIATICAL ISSUER to VIATICAL INVESTORS. The underwriting agreement between the UNDERWRITER and the VIATICAL ISSUER may specify either a “firm” underwriting in which the UNDERWRITER agrees to purchase all of the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS in an offering for resale to INVESTORS, or a “best efforts” underwriting without an obligation to purchase and resell all of the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS.
- 14. VIATICAL INVESTMENT means the contractual right to receive any portion of the death benefit or ownership of a life insurance policy or certificate, for consideration that is less than the expected death benefit of the life insurance policy or certificate. VIATICAL INVESTMENT does not include:
 - a. any transaction between a VIATOR and a viatical settlement provider as defined by [reference to state statute or most recent version of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (“NAIC”) Model Viatical Settlement Act];
 - b. any transfer of ownership and/or beneficial interest in a life insurance policy from a viatical settlement provider to another viatical settlement provider as defined by [reference to state statute or most recent version of the NAIC Model Viatical Settlement Act] or to any legal entity formed solely for the purpose of holding ownership and/or beneficial interest in a life insurance policy or policies;
 - c. the bona fide assignment of a life insurance policy to a bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or other licensed lending institution as collateral for a loan; or

- d. the exercise of accelerated benefits pursuant to the terms of a life insurance policy issued in accordance with the insurance laws of this state.

[Drafting Note – The definition of VIATICAL INVESTMENT is intended to include transactions in life insurance policies regardless of the age or health of the INSURED. Some states may have adopted insurance laws that modify the NAIC Model Viatical Settlement Act to limit the scope of coverage to insureds who are terminally or chronically ill. States are encouraged to review their respective insurance laws for consistency.]

15. VIATICAL INVESTOR means any PERSON who purchases or subscribes to purchase a VIATICAL INVESTMENT.
16. VIATICAL ISSUER means, in the case of a fractional interest in VIATICAL INVESTMENTS, any PERSON who creates, for the purpose of sale, the fractional interest, and in the case of a VIATICAL INVESTMENT that is not fractionalized, any PERSON engaged in the business of effecting transactions in VIATICAL INVESTMENTS to which the VIATOR is not a party. VIATICAL ISSUER does not include a [broker dealer], an [agent], or any PERSON who sells a VIATICAL INVESTMENT to no more than one natural person in a calendar year. 17. VIATOR means the owner of a life insurance policy or a certificate holder under a group policy who enters or seeks to enter into a viatical settlement contract, as defined by [reference to state statute or most recent version of the NAIC Model Viatical Settlement Act].

Interim financial statements may be unaudited. No interim financial statements shall be required if the filing occurs within 120 days after the end of the VIATICAL ISSUER's last fiscal year. The financial statements for the most recent fiscal year of the issuer shall be audited. The financial statements for the two years before the most recent fiscal year of the VIATICAL ISSUER may be reviewed, but the reviewed financial statements should be presented in conformity with GAAP in the same format as the AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS for the VIATICAL ISSUER's last fiscal year.  2. Negative equity;

3. An inability to satisfy current obligations as they come due;
or
 4. Negative cash flow from operations.

7. The ADMINISTRATOR may waive any requirement of II. C. 1 through 6 above, upon a showing by the VIATICAL ISSUER that any post investment escrow, tracking, medical evaluation or other investment-related services are to be performed by a PERSON other than the VIATICAL ISSUER.
8. In the event of a waiver by the ADMINISTRATOR, pursuant to II. C. 7 above, the ADMINISTRATOR may require the VIATICAL ISSUER to supply AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, in compliance with II.C.1 through 6 above, for any PERSON performing post investment escrow, tracking, medical evaluation or other investment-related services.

D. Premium Payments

The VIATICAL ISSUER shall demonstrate that there is a reasonable plan for the payment of premiums on life insurance policies underlying the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS, which shall include the notification to VIATICAL INVESTORS of any anticipated inability to pay premiums at least 90 days before premium payments are due.

III. SUITABILITY OF VIATICAL INVESTORS

Sales of VIATICAL INVESTMENTS shall be made only to suitable investors or other PERSONS the VIATICAL ISSUER reasonably believes, after reasonable inquiry, to be suitable investors. A corporation, partnership, or other organization specifically formed for the purpose of acquiring the securities offered by the VIATICAL ISSUER may be a suitable investor only if each of the equity owners of the corporation, partnership, or other organization is a suitable investor. Suitable investors may include the following:

- A. Any PERSON that meets the definition of accredited investor in Regulation D, Rule 501(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 or Qualified Institutional Buyer in Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933;
- B. A natural person who, either individually or jointly with the person's spouse, (i) has a minimum net worth of [one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000)] and had, during the immediately preceding tax year, gross income in excess of [one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000)] and reasonably expects gross income in excess of [one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000)] during the current tax year or (ii) has a minimum net worth of [two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000)]. "Net worth" shall be determined exclusive of home, home furnishings, and automobiles. Other assets included in the computation of net worth shall be valued at fair market value. The aggregate amount of VIATICAL INVESTMENTS of each natural person shall not exceed [10 percent] of their net worth, as defined by this subsection.

IV. ESCROW REQUIREMENTS

A. General Requirements

1. There shall at all times be one or more ESCROW AGENTS who are responsible for accepting investor funds, transferring funds in order to purchase policies, paying insurance premiums, and receiving death benefits for all policies where VIATICAL INVESTORS are not the beneficiaries.
2. The ESCROW AGENT may not receive more than 20% of its total revenue from all sources including its fees for escrow services, from the VIATICAL ISSUER.
3. The ESCROW AGENT may not lend more than 5% of the value of the premium escrow account to the VIATICAL ISSUER.

B. The Escrow Agreements

2. The VIATICAL ISSUER shall demonstrate that the plan for payment of insurance premiums is reasonable to cover future premium obligations.
3. The escrow agreement governing the receipt of VIATICAL INVESTOR funds shall provide for the transfer of funds into a policy within 90 days of the receipt of those funds. The escrow agreement governing the receipt of death benefits from a life insurance company upon the death of the INSURED shall provide for the distribution to VIATICAL INVESTORS of the death benefits within 30 days of the receipt of those proceeds.
4. The escrow agreement shall provide that any escrow accounts established by or on behalf of ESCROW AGENTS are not subject to the claims of creditors, excluding VIATICAL INVESTORS, of the VIATICAL ISSUER, its AFFILIATES and PROMOTERS.
5. The escrow agreement shall provide that if the ESCROW AGENT voluntarily withdraws as ESCROW AGENT, the VIATICAL ISSUER shall designate a successor ESCROW AGENT. The withdrawing ESCROW AGENT may petition a court to appoint a successor ESCROW

AGENT. The withdrawing or resigning ESCROW AGENT must continue to perform under the escrow agreement until the successor ESCROW AGENT is designated by the VIATICAL ISSUER or the court.

6. If the escrow agreement allows the ESCROW AGENT to be terminated by the VIATICAL ISSUER or the VIATICAL INVESTORS, there must be a reasonable procedure set forth in the escrow agreement for replacing the ESCROW AGENT.
7. The escrow agreement shall provide that the ESCROW AGENT shall provide a report to the VIATICAL INVESTORS if there has been any known DEFAULT under the escrow agreement, within 30 days of such DEFAULT. The report shall disclose the steps the ESCROW AGENT is taking to remedy the DEFAULT.

V. COMPENSATION

- A. The VIATICAL ISSUER shall demonstrate that compensation, fees and expenses paid to all parties are fair, competitive and commercially reasonable.
- B. The registration statement must fully disclose and itemize all compensation, fees and expenses which have been paid in the 12 months of operation preceding the application in connection with the sale of VIATICAL INVESTMENTS, including but not limited to those paid to the VIATICAL ISSUER, the selling agents, the viatical broker, the VIATOR, the ESCROW AGENT, and the medical consultant or reviewer.
- C. The registration statement must fully disclose changes in the VIATICAL ISSUER's business model that may have a material effect on the compensation, fees and expenses disclosed in Section V. B. The registration statement must further disclose those changes in the marketplace the VIATICAL ISSUER reasonably foresees that may have a material effect on compensation, fees and expenses disclosed in Section V. B.

VI. RETENTION OF RECORDS

Subject to the requirements of individual states, the VIATICAL ISSUER shall, for a minimum of three (3) years from the date of purchase of the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS or one (1) year from the date of maturity of the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS, whichever period is longer, retain copies of all:

1. prospectuses, pamphlets, circulars, advertisements or other sales literature provided to VIATICAL INVESTORS;
2. disclosure documents provided to VIATICAL INVESTORS;

3. purchase agreements;
4. escrow agreements;
5. servicing agreements entered into between VIATICAL INVESTORS and IRA administrators;
6. checks, drafts or other forms of payment received from VIATICAL INVESTORS;
7. records relating to the payment of premiums on insurance policies underlying the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS;
8. documents relating to the determination of life expectancy of the INSURED;
9. documents relating to the monitoring of the INSURED's whereabouts;
10. documents relating to the monitoring of the INSURED's ongoing medical condition;
11. written communications with VIATICAL INVESTORS;
12. written communications with the insurance company that issued the insurance policy underlying the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS;
13. sales agreements or contracts with sales agents and BROKER-DEALERS;
14. documents required to be maintained by the VIATICAL ISSUER licensed under the [NAIC Model Viatical Settlement Act or similar viatical regulatory act of the particular state]; and
15. documents obtained by the VIATICAL ISSUER in performing due diligence on the life insurance policies subject to the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS.

The VIATICAL ISSUER shall provide the above documents upon request of the ADMINISTRATOR and will be subject to examination in accordance with the provisions of [statutory reference].

VII. ANNUAL REPORTS TO VIATICAL INVESTORS

The VIATICAL ISSUER shall provide the following disclosure, if known or reasonably could be known to the VIATICAL ISSUER and subject to federal and state privacy laws, to each VIATICAL INVESTOR at least annually:

1. The INSURED's current medical condition.

2. Any change of status of the underlying policy.
3. The status of premium payments on the policy, the amount currently specifically escrowed to continue to pay such premiums on the underlying policy, and the time period for which remaining escrowed funds will keep the underlying policy in force.
4. The date of maturity or other disposition of the underlying policy.

VIII. OFFERING CIRCULAR

VIATICAL INVESTORS shall receive all material information necessary to make informed investment decisions, and the VIATICAL ISSUER must provide VIATICAL INVESTORS with a complete OFFERING CIRCULAR at least 48 hours prior to their purchase of VIATICAL INVESTMENTS.

The OFFERING CIRCULAR must be written in clearly understandable language and disclose all relevant and material information that affects or would affect a VIATICAL INVESTOR's decision to purchase the VIATICAL INVESTMENT. The information outlined below is not intended to be all-inclusive and the VIATICAL ISSUER must include other information not specifically listed that would be material to a VIATICAL INVESTOR's understanding of the VIATICAL ISSUER and the VIATICAL INVESTMENT.

The following information must be included in the OFFERING CIRCULAR unless the VIATICAL ISSUER can demonstrate to the ADMINISTRATOR that a particular type of information is not applicable or material to an understanding of the VIATICAL ISSUER or the VIATICAL INVESTMENT.

A. COVER PAGE

1. Name of the VIATICAL ISSUER.
2. Principal address and telephone number of the VIATICAL ISSUER
3. The estimated gross proceeds to be received from the sale of VIATICAL INVESTMENTS.
4. A statement that the offering is subject to certain risks and the page number(s) in the OFFERING CIRCULAR where the risk factors are disclosed.
5. Name, address and telephone number of each ESCROW AGENT.
6. Name, address and telephone number of the principal UNDERWRITER or BROKER-DEALER assisting with the offering of the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS.
7. The proposed termination date of the offering and the VIATICAL ISSUER's right to extend the offering, if any.

8. Date of the OFFERING CIRCULAR.
9. Any legends that are required by applicable state laws, rules or regulations.
The following is a model legend:

In making an investment decision, you must rely on your own examination of the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These VIATICAL INVESTMENTS have not been recommended by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, the foregoing authorities have not confirmed the accuracy or determined the adequacy of this document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

No person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representations in connection with this offering other than those contained in this OFFERING CIRCULAR, and if given or made, such information or representations must not be relied upon as having been made by the VIATICAL ISSUER.

For filings with some ADMINISTRATORS, it may be necessary to add a legend to describe statutory rescission rights that are available to VIATICAL INVESTORS.

10. Disclose any limitations or conditions of sales to VIATICAL INVESTORS in this State, including but not limited to the suitability requirements set forth in Section III.

A table of contents should follow the cover page or it may be placed on the back of the last page to outline and provide page number references for the various sections and subtitles in the OFFERING CIRCULAR.

B. SUMMARY

A summary of narrative and financial information that describes the nature of the investment and highlights the key aspects and risks of the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS, and the financial and operational characteristics of the VIATICAL ISSUER should be presented concisely in the OFFERING CIRCULAR following the cover page or risk factor section. The Summary section should include the disclosure of the VIATICAL ISSUER's proposed estimated use of proceeds, and a summary of the proposed estimated compensation and fees to be paid by or on behalf of the VIATICAL ISSUER in connection with the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS.

C. RISK FACTORS

1. Format and Use of Risk Factors

- a. Risk factors should immediately follow the Cover Page or the Summary. Consistent with investor protection, a comprehensive listing of the material risks to the potential VIATICAL INVESTORS in the offering should be located at the forefront of the OFFERING CIRCULAR. Potential VIATICAL INVESTORS often focus on the forepart of the document. When comparing potential investment opportunities, consistency in format of complex disclosure documents further assists the VIATICAL INVESTOR.
 - b. Risk factor captions should appear in off-set or emphasized type. As a listing of the material risks of the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS, captions should stand out to the eye of the reader. Italicized, bold-faced, or underlined type assists the reader to quickly comprehend the scope and nature of the particular risk factors, and permits the reader to focus further on the risk factors of most interest to that reader. For the same reason, VIATICAL ISSUERS should avoid lengthy captions.
2. Specific Risk Factors

The VIATICAL ISSUER must describe to potential VIATICAL INVESTORS the risks of investing in the VIATICAL INVESTMENTS. Statements to the effect that little or no risk is involved in VIATICAL INVESTMENTS are prohibited, and such statements will be regarded as material misrepresentations. It is important that the VIATICAL ISSUER concisely describe all of the relevant and material risks which may include, if applicable, the following:

- a. The rate of return on your investment cannot be calculated before the insured dies. The longer the insured lives, the lower the rate of return on your investment will be.
- b. No one can accurately predict the actual life expectancy of an insured.

Some factors that may affect the accuracy of a prediction are:

- The experience and qualifications of the PERSONS making the life expectancy prediction.
 - The nature of the insured's illness.
 - Future breakthrough treatments and cures.
 - If the insured has AIDS, the definition of AIDS used by the viatical company.
- c. You may have to pay money in addition to your initial investment.

The insurance company will cancel the policy in which you have invested if periodic premium payments are not made to keep the policy in force. The insurance company will not pay the death benefit if the policy is not in force.

It is likely that a portion of the money you invest will be set aside to pay premiums. However, if the insured lives longer than expected, you may be required to pay additional premiums to keep the policy in force.

d. Being a beneficiary of a policy and not also an owner carries special risks.

The person who buys a life insurance policy is the owner of the policy and decides who the beneficiaries of the policy will be - that is, who will receive the death benefit when the owner dies. If the owner sells that policy (now called a viator), the investors become the new beneficiaries and therefore are entitled to receive the death benefit when the insured dies. The new owner of the policy may be the investors, the viatical company, or the escrow agent.

Only an owner of a policy, not a beneficiary, has the right to make premium payments directly to the insurance company so that the policy will remain in force.

If the funds that have been set aside to pay premiums run out, you will be dependent on the viatical company to collect additional premium money from investors and to pay premiums promptly. If that company goes out of business or otherwise fails to collect premiums from investors, you may not be able to pay the premiums yourself if you are only a beneficiary.

e. Term insurance policies carry special risks.

A term policy is issued for a specific time period. The insurance company will not pay the death benefit if the insured outlives that time period. If you purchase a term policy, you will be dependent on the viatical company from which you purchased your viatical investment to renew the policy when the term expires.

f. Contestable policies carry special risks.

The insurance company may “contest” a policy for a two-year period after its issuance if the company finds a reason to cancel the policy.

The insurance company will not pay the death benefit if:

- the insured dies within the contestability period, and
- the insurance company has a reason to cancel the policy.

One example of a reason that an insurance company might cancel a policy is if the insured did not truthfully answer a question on the policy application. The policy may also be cancelled if the insured commits suicide within the two-year contestability period.

g. Group policies carry special risks.

A group policy insures the members of a specific group of people, usually the employees of a company. The biggest risk for someone who invests in a group policy is that the policy can be terminated by the employer or the insurance company. Although the policy may contain a provision allowing conversion to an individual policy, there may be limits or restrictions on the right to convert. Also, the insurance company may charge additional premiums once the policy is converted.

h. Investing IRA money in a viatical settlement contract carries special risks.

Internal Revenue Code section 408(a)(3) requires that “no part of trust [IRA] funds will be invested in life insurance contracts.” This means that the Internal Revenue Service may not allow you the tax benefits of an IRA if you invest in a viatical settlement contract.

Even if such an investment is allowed, you should carefully consider your age, the life expectancy of the insured, and the difficulty in predicting life expectancy before investing IRA funds in a viatical settlement contract. Since death benefits are not paid until the insured dies, you may encounter a problem taking annual distributions from your IRA that are mandatory beginning at age 70½. If the funds are not available to take the mandatory distribution, you may be penalized by the IRS.

i. An investment in a viatical settlement contract is not a liquid investment.

The death benefit on a viatical settlement contract will not be paid until the insured dies, and there is no established secondary market for viatical investments. This means that you will probably not be able to sell your contract in an emergency to raise money for your immediate needs.

j. Check any promises of guarantees carefully.

The viatical company from which you purchase your viatical investment may provide a performance or fidelity bond, or another similar instrument, with your purchase. The purpose of these instruments is to “guarantee,” or “insure,” your investment. Ask exactly what is being guaranteed. Also ask the salesperson for a copy of the instrument.

If the company issuing the “guarantee” does not have the necessary financial resources to make payments under the “guarantee,” you will not receive any benefit from the “guarantee.”

You should do a background check on the company issuing the guarantee instrument. Contact the appropriate regulator to verify that the company exists, is in good standing, and is licensed to do business in the appropriate state(s). Obtain a copy of the company’s most recent financial statements. Be particularly wary if the company is located in a foreign country.

The terms of the contract between the company issuing the “guarantee” and the viatical company may also affect how valuable, or useful, the “guarantee” is to you. Ask for a copy of this agreement.

- k. You could lose some of the death benefit you have purchased if the insurance company that issued the life insurance policy goes out of business.

Insurance companies are rated based on their financial safety and soundness. A lower rating means that the company is more likely to go out of business. Each state maintains an insurance guarantee fund for the benefit of policyholders of insurance companies that have gone out of business. The guarantee fund may impose a limit on the amount that can be recovered on each policy.

Also, the payment on your viatical settlement contract would be delayed if you needed to seek funds from this guarantee fund or from the receivership of the insurance company. This delay would reduce the rate of return on your investment.

- l. Privacy laws and other factors may limit the information you receive about the insured.

Federal and state privacy laws may limit the information you receive about the insured after your investment, such as the insured’s current medical condition. In addition, other factors, such as the insured’s unwillingness to cooperate, may limit the information you receive after your investment.
