Conference for Food Protection

Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs

As Amended at the 2012 Biennial Meeting of the Conference for Food
Protection

Preamble

The Conference for Food Protection, hereinafter referred to as the CFP, is an independent voluntary organization that has identified the essential components of a nationally recognized Food Protection Manager Certification Program and established a mechanism to determine if certification organizations meet these standards. The CFP Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs is intended for all legal entities that provide certification for this profession. The standards have been developed after years of CFP's research into, and discussion about, Food Protection Manager Certification Programs.

All certification organizations attesting to the competency of Food Protection Managers, including regulatory authorities that administer and/or deliver certification programs, have a responsibility to the individuals desiring certification, to the employers of those individuals, and to the public. Certification organizations have as a primary purpose the evaluation of those individuals who wish to secure or maintain Food Protection Manager Certification in accordance with the criteria and standards established through the CFP. Certification organizations issue certificates to individuals who meet the required level of competency.

The CFP standards are based on nationally recognized principles used by a variety of organizations providing certification programs for diverse professions and occupations. Accreditation, through the process recognized by CFP, indicates that the certification organization has been evaluated by a third party accrediting organization and found to meet or exceed all of the CFP's established standards.

To earn accreditation, the certification organization shall meet the following CFP standards and provide evidence of compliance through the documentation requested in the application. In addition, the certification organization shall agree to abide by certification policies and procedures which are specified by the CFP Food Protection Manager Certification Committee, hereinafter referred to as the FPMC Committee, approved by the CFP, and implemented by the accrediting organization.

The accrediting organization shall verify and monitor continuing compliance with the CFP standards through the entire accreditation period. The CFP FPMC Committee will work directly with the accreditation organization to enhance and maintain certification policies and procedures that meet the specific needs of Food Protection Managers while ensuring a valid, reliable and legally defensible evaluation of certification programs.

The American National Standards Institute (ANSI) was selected as the accrediting organization for the CFP Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs and assumed its duties in January, 2003. The CFP FPMC Committee continues to work within the Conference structure to monitor the criteria and selection process for the organization serving as the accrediting body for Food Protection Manager Certification Programs.

The CFP strongly encourages regulatory authorities and other entities evaluating credentials for Food Protection Managers to recognize and endorse these standards and the accreditation process. The CFP Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs provides the framework for universal acceptance of individuals who have obtained their credentials from an accredited certification program. In the U.S Food and Drug Administration's Food Code, hereinafter referred to as the FDA Food Code, Section 2-102.20 recognizes Food Protection Manager certificates issued by an accredited certification program as one means of meeting the FDA Food Code's "Demonstration of Knowledge" requirement in Section 2-102.11.

Modifications and Improvements

The FPMC Committee followed the Conference directive to use the 1996 conference working document, Standards for Training, Testing and Certification of Food Protection Managers, in the development of accreditation standards. Extensive revision of this document was presented to CFP's 2012 Biennial Meeting of the Conferences for Food Protection under the title, Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs.

The charge to the FPMC Committee from the 2010 Biennial Meeting of the Conference for Food Protection resulted in revisions to the Standards to enhance the integrity of the entire testing process, which includes identification and analysis of root causes of security violations and implement solutions.

The revision and reformatting of the document were made after a comprehensive FPMC Committee review of each section. This revision of the Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs:

1. adds and improves definitions that are more precise and more consistent with terminology and definitions used in the psychometric community and by accreditation organizations;
2. reorganizes Standards to eliminate duplication and align with purpose;
3. modifies or creates Standards to better address professional credibility and training of test administrators/proctors; handling of examination packages; shipping irregularities; location (site) irregularities; and breach of the certification organization's test administrators/proctors protocols and requirements;
4. uses “test administrator/proctor” in the Standards to indicate duties for both “test administrator” and “proctor,” and
5. adds a standard for management systems.

Annexes

The annexes located at the back of the document are NOT part of the standards, but provide information to guide those responsible for implementing or reviewing Food Protection Manager Certification Programs. Each of the annexes provides guidelines for specific responsibilities that impact the effective implementation of the Conference Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs.

Annex A provides a “Code of Ethics” for certification organizations responsible for the design of the assessment tool used to measure an examinee’s competency. Certification organizations have a responsibility to ensure that the certification process is fair to the examinees and protects their inherent rights.

Annex B provides some guidance to regulatory authorities that incorporate Food Protection Manager Certification as part of their requirements to obtain or retain a permit to operate. The CFP Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs is designed to be a set of voluntary unifying national standards providing a mechanism for the universal acceptance of food protection managers who obtain their certificates from an accredited certification program.

Over the past 25 years, many regulatory authorities have developed their own Food Protection Manager Certification Programs. This has resulted in a variety of standards for certification programs. The CFP national standards for universal acceptance of Certified Food Protection Managers provide regulatory authorities reliable and legally defensible criteria for evaluating certification programs. In addition, they eliminate duplication of testing and additional cost for the industry.

Regulatory authorities that may not be in a position to eliminate their existing programs are encouraged to recognize food protection managers certified in accordance with these standards as fulfilling their program requirements. Annex B provides additional guidance, developed through the CFP, for the implementation of these regulatory certification programs.
